RI TRANSPARENCY REPORT

2014/15

Joseph Rowntree Charitable Trust

About this report

The PRI Reporting Framework is a key step in the journey towards building a common language and industry standard for reporting responsible investment (RI) activities. This RI Transparency Report is one of the key outputs of this Framework. Its primary objective is to enable signatory transparency on RI activities and facilitate dialogue between investors and their clients, beneficiaries and other stakeholders. A copy of this report will be publicly disclosed for all reporting signatories on the PRI website, ensuring accountability of the PRI Initiative and its signatories.

This report is an export of the individual Signatory organisation's response to the PRI during the 2014-15 reporting cycle. It includes their responses to mandatory indicators, as well as responses to voluntary indicators the signatory has agreed to make public. The information is presented exactly as it was reported. Where an indicator offers a response option that is multiple-choice, all options that were available to the signatory to select are presented in this report. Presenting the information exactly as reported is a result of signatory feedback which suggested the PRI not summarise the information. As a result, the reports can be extensive. However, to help easily locate information, there is a Principles index which highlights where the information can be found and summarises the indicators that signatories complete and disclose.

Understanding the Principles Index

The Principles Index summarises the response status for the individual indicators and modules and shows how these relate to the six Principles for Responsible Investment. It can be used by stakeholders as an 'at-a-glance' summary of reported information and to identify particular themes or areas of interest.

Indicators can refer to one or more Principles. Some indicators are not specific to any Principle. These are highlighted in the 'General' column. When multiple Principles are covered across numerous indicators, in order to avoid repetition, only the main Principle covered is highlighted.

All indicators within a module are presented below. The status of indicators is shown with the following symbols:

Symbol	Status
✓	The signatory has completed all mandatory parts of this indicator
☑	The signatory has completed some parts of this indicator
🔒	This indicator was not relevant for this signatory
-	The signatory did not complete any part of this indicator
Ⓜ	The signatory has flagged this indicator for internal review

Within the table, indicators marked in blue are mandatory to complete. Indicators marked in grey are voluntary to complete.

OA 18.1

Indicate whether any specific features of your approach to responsible investment are particularly innovative.

Yes

OA 18.2

Describe any specific features of your approach to responsible investment that you believe are particularly innovative.

In 2013 we changed the way we organise the management of our externally managed funds by moving them away from one mainstream fund manager, who relied on us to supply ethical screening, to six new fund managers who regard themselves as 'responsible investors' and run sustainable funds.

For many years, with the help of EIRIS, we supplied our fund managers with a regularly updated list of companies which we regarded as acceptable for our portfolio. However, more recently, we have recognised the growing expertise on responsible investment within the investment industry and we have decided that the most effective way to align our investments with our values is to look for fund managers that take a responsible and sustainable investment approach.

To this end we have invested in six new sustainability funds. We have also invested with CCLA through a segregated mandate which mirrors the CFB Church of England UK Equity Fund.

During the interview process we paid as much attention to the fund managers' approach to ESG and stewardship in general as we did to their investment processes and performance. It was not sufficient that they had signed up to the FRC UK Stewardship Code and other, similar, initiatives - we also expected them to have a real understanding of ESG issues, and to have a regular and productive discussions with us with the companies in which they invest. We also sought a willingness on their part to have an ongoing dialogue with us into the future and to follow up our specific concerns with investee companies.

This is not to say that we have delegated all our ethical oversight to our managers. We continue to inform ourselves about ethical issues and still recognise our obligations as a responsible investor.

Overview

SAM 01	Voluntary	Descriptive	PRI 1-6

SAM 01.1 Provide a brief description of how your organisation includes responsible investment considerations in your investment manager selection, appointment and monitoring processes.

When selecting investment managers, we consider the matter with an open mind and will consider a range of investment managers, recognising that sometimes those who blow their trumpet loudest on ESG issues are not necessary the most effective.

During the interview process itself we pay as much attention to the managers' approach to ESG and stewardship in general as we do to their investment processes and performance. It is not sufficient that they have signed up to the FRC UK Stewardship Code and other, similar, initiatives - we also expect them to have a real understanding of ESG issues, and to have a regular and productive discussions with us about the companies in which they invest. We also seek a willingness on their part to have an ongoing dialogue with us into the future and to follow up our specific concerns with investee companies.

Once appointed, we meet with our managers twice a year although ad hoc meeting might take place in between times to address specific issues. We carefully structure our questioning to ensure that we obtain all the information we require and we carefully note the responses for future reference. In addition we expect to receive regular reports on our investments and routinely request specific information to fill any gaps in our information needs.

Engagement

Overview

LEA 01	Voluntary	Descriptive	PRI 2

LEA 01.1 Provide a brief overview of your organisation's approach to engagement.

The Trust engages with companies, both directly and through its fund managers, to try to improve practices and may, in the event of on-going concerns, sell its shares and/or change its fund managers.

We are delighted at the growth of responsible investment since we began these practices and are happy to collaborate with other investors, such as our colleagues in the Church Investors Group and Charities Responsible Investors Network. On many issues others with stronger voices than ours will lead the engagement. While collaborative engagement has the advantage of reducing the pressure on our own limited resources, more importantly we appreciate the added impact which group engagement offers.

We expect our fund managers to actively vote the shares in their funds and to disclose how they voted.

Our stocks managed under a segregated mandate are typically voted in accordance with Church Investors Group template.

We vote the shares which we directly manage ourselves or which are not covered by the template after careful consideration of the issues being voted on. If we vote against or abstain from voting, we endeavour to advise the company in advance of our reasons why.

Our detailed voting record is available on request.

We do not lend stock.
