RI TRANSPARENCY REPORT

2014/15

Payden & Rygel

About this report

The PRI Reporting Framework is a key step in the journey towards building a common language and industry standard for reporting responsible investment (RI) activities. This RI Transparency Report is one of the key outputs of this Framework. Its primary objective is to enable signatory transparency on RI activities and facilitate dialogue between investors and their clients, beneficiaries and other stakeholders. A copy of this report will be publicly disclosed for all reporting signatories on the PRI website, ensuring accountability of the PRI Initiative and its signatories.

This report is an export of the individual Signatory organisation's response to the PRI during the 2014-15 reporting cycle. It includes their responses to mandatory indicators, as well as responses to voluntary indicators the signatory has agreed to make public. The information is presented exactly as it was reported. Where an indicator offers a response option that is multiple-choice, all options that were available to the signatory to select are presented in this report. Presenting the information exactly as reported is a result of signatory feedback which suggested the PRI not summarise the information. As a result, the reports can be extensive. However, to help easily locate information, there is a Principles index which highlights where the information can be found and summarises the indicators that signatories complete and disclose.

Understanding the Principles Index

The Principles Index summarises the response status for the individual indicators and modules and shows how these relate to the six Principles for Responsible Investment. It can be used by stakeholders as an 'at-a-glance' summary of reported information and to identify particular themes or areas of interest.

Indicators can refer to one or more Principles. Some indicators are not specific to any Principle. These are highlighted in the 'General' column. When multiple Principles are covered across numerous indicators, in order to avoid repetition, only the main Principle covered is highlighted.

All indicators within a module are presented below. The status of indicators is shown with the following symbols:

Symbol	Status
✓	The signatory has completed all mandatory parts of this indicator
☑	The signatory has completed some parts of this indicator
🔒	This indicator was not relevant for this signatory
-	The signatory did not complete any part of this indicator
Ⓜ	The signatory has flagged this indicator for internal review

Within the table, indicators marked in blue are mandatory to complete. Indicators marked in grey are voluntary to complete.

Our core mission is to provide competitive risk-adjusted returns consistent with clients' investment objectives while delivering no surprises. Payden & Rygel believes in the value of fundamental analysis in the security selection process combined with robust risk management techniques. Our global security analysis is framed in the context of an awareness of companies' consideration of the prudent application of ESG factors.

Process:

ESG considerations are embedded in our corporate and sovereign investment process as outlined below:

■ Governance

Corporations

- Transparency of management: Publicly listed companies with audited, detailed financial statement disclosures, whose management team communicates regularly with investors.
- Board independence: A diverse board with appropriate controls.
- Executive compensation: Prudent compensation policy linked to performance.
- Reputation: Companies maintaining good relations with investors and the community.

Sovereigns

- Institutional framework: Countries with strong central bank credibility, autonomy and finance ministry independence.
- Rule of law: Executive power should be limited by the strength of the legislative and judicial branches.
- Policy consistency: Consistent fiscal responsibility and monetary policy throughout government changes.
- Corruption: Sovereigns that score high on efforts against illicit transactions.

■ Social

Corporations

We consider employer/employee relations, safety and corporate social responsibility policy.

Sovereigns

We invest in countries where social factors are predictable. Among these factors are political freedom, access to education and employment opportunity.

■ Environmental

Corporations

We assess companies environmental policies related to the impact on its business as well as potential conflicts with regulators.

Sovereigns

We consider the relevance of factors including pollution, water availability, and climate change.

Engagement:

Our global research team meets with senior management with the objective of understanding the risk mosaic associated with a company. It is through this engagement that we aim to fully understand a company's risk picture, and when appropriate, take action to mitigate the risk of detrimental security performance.

Preserving the trust of our clients is a matter of singular importance to the management of Payden & Rygel. To this end, we wish to avoid apparent and actual conflicts of interest. Our internal controls involve a combination of oversight by the managing principals of the firm, state-of-the-art software, and separation of duties.

The firm's Code of Ethics provides policies and procedures dealing specifically with conflicts of interests surrounding investment management practices, such as insider trading, personal securities transactions, and other conflicts of interest related to the investment management process. The firm's Compliance Group plays an integral part in monitoring employee compliance to the Code of Ethics. The Code of Ethics is reviewed in detail with all new employees, including in particular the provisions on conflicts of interest. At least once a year at the Annual Compliance Review that all employees are required to attend, and more frequently if necessary, the conflicts of interest provisions of the Code are reviewed and employees are required to confirm that they know of no conflicts of interest they may have.

Describe your primary reasons for choosing a particular incorporation strategy.

An "integration" approach best describes our incorporation strategy since ESG factors are applied throughout our investment process. Our analysts' assessment of countries and corporations based on ESG criteria are critical in forming the overall risk profile of our current and potential investments. We believe that the integration of ESG factors throughout our process serve to enhance our overall analysis and add value to our clients.

Additionally, we employ a "screening" approach for some clients who have investment guidelines based on ESG criteria.
