By providing investors the ability to view and compare the environmental, social and governance (ESG) performance of the companies in their portfolios, UCA Funds Management can help investors make more informed investment decisions. This is done through the use of the UCA Funds Management ESG Index, which is a benchmark for the ESG performance of the companies in the portfolio. The ESG Index is calculated based on a number of factors, including the company's carbon footprint, its social performance, and its governance practices. The ESG Index is used to measure the ESG performance of the companies in the portfolio and to compare it to the ESG performance of the companies in the market. This information is used to help investors make more informed investment decisions and to help them to identify the companies in their portfolios that are most likely to deliver long-term value.	LEA 02	Monetary	Principles PRI 1, 2, 3

RI TRANSPARENCY REPORT

2014/15

UCA Funds Management

About this report

The PRI Reporting Framework is a key step in the journey towards building a common language and industry standard for reporting responsible investment (RI) activities. This RI Transparency Report is one of the key outputs of this Framework. Its primary objective is to enable signatory transparency on RI activities and facilitate dialogue between investors and their clients, beneficiaries and other stakeholders. A copy of this report will be publicly disclosed for all reporting signatories on the PRI website, ensuring accountability of the PRI Initiative and its signatories.

This report is an export of the individual Signatory organisation's response to the PRI during the 2014-15 reporting cycle. It includes their responses to mandatory indicators, as well as responses to voluntary indicators the signatory has agreed to make public. The information is presented exactly as it was reported. Where an indicator offers a response option that is multiple-choice, all options that were available to the signatory to select are presented in this report. Presenting the information exactly as reported is a result of signatory feedback which suggested the PRI not summarise the information. As a result, the reports can be extensive. However, to help easily locate information, there is a Principles index which highlights where the information can be found and summarises the indicators that signatories complete and disclose.

Understanding the Principles Index

The Principles Index summarises the response status for the individual indicators and modules and shows how these relate to the six Principles for Responsible Investment. It can be used by stakeholders as an 'at-a-glance' summary of reported information and to identify particular themes or areas of interest.

Indicators can refer to one or more Principles. Some indicators are not specific to any Principle. These are highlighted in the 'General' column. When multiple Principles are covered across numerous indicators, in order to avoid repetition, only the main Principle covered is highlighted.

All indicators within a module are presented below. The status of indicators is shown with the following symbols:

Symbol	Status
✓	The signatory has completed all mandatory parts of this indicator
☑	The signatory has completed some parts of this indicator
🔒	This indicator was not relevant for this signatory
-	The signatory did not complete any part of this indicator
Ⓜ	The signatory has flagged this indicator for internal review

Within the table, indicators marked in blue are mandatory to complete. Indicators marked in grey are voluntary to complete.

---------	------------------------------------

~~UCA FM's investment philosophy is shaped by the needs and objectives for our underlying investors. We believe charitable and faith-based organisations are best suited to an investment approach that emphasises four factors: Fiduciary responsibility, a focus on income, recognition of their tax exempt status and alignment with their values or mission. We provide some detail on the importance of these characteristics to our investment success over the long term:

~~As stewards of capital, our 360° Ethical® Investing process encourages a range of ethical issues to be considered in our investment process.

Our ethical investment policy and positive screening encourages investment in companies that produce goods or services which:

- Enhance the health and welfare of individuals and communities; and
- Preserve the environment.

Similarly, our negative screening seeks to avoid investing in companies whose products, services or practices:

- Cause or perpetuate injustice and suffering;
- Infringe human rights;
- Cause unacceptable damage to the natural environment; or
- Have unacceptable occupational health and safety practices;
- We avoid investing in companies that support oppressive regimes.

Prohibited industries are currently armaments, uranium, thermal coal, unconventional oil and gas, gambling, alcohol production, tobacco manufacturing and pornography.

In practice, the majority of investments will be in companies which are considered to be neutral in terms of the positive and negative screens. Such investments will be made on the basis of investment criteria, which will assist UCA FM to exercise good stewardship, and provide a reliable source of income and capital growth. The wise use of resources is, in itself, an ethical outcome.

For more information on our Ethical Investment Policy and 360° ethical@ investing, please visit www.ucafunds.com.au/Ethical Approach or read our latest annual report.

Top down themes

Our big picture view of the world is shaped by an understanding of the present nature of the business cycle. This allows an assessment to be made on the trajectory of sales and earnings growth, prospects for job creation, credit growth and interest rates. While not an exact science it can help to steer portfolios away from structurally challenged investments.

In a similar way, we monitor themes which have the potential to impact the portfolio. Recent examples include the rise in demand from China for raw materials, the ageing population and demand for health care, fiscal austerity and the search for higher yields.

OO 11	Mandatory	Gateway	General
OO 11.1	Indicate if in the reporting year you incorporated ESG issues into your investment decisions and/or your active ownership practices in the following internally managed asset classes.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Cash
<input type="checkbox"/> None of the above

~~Our ethical policy encompasses environmental, social, governance and labour considerations and is designed to reflect the values of charitable and faith-based organisations. We describe UCA FM's philosophy as 360° Ethical® Investing, which consists of four principles:

1. To maintain consistently-competitive investment returns.
2. To adhere to a comprehensive, clearly enunciated ethical investment policy.
3. To be a leading example of how an ethical financial institution should operate.
4. To give back operating surplus to community services, advocacy and mission-based activities.

~~Our Australian Equity investment style reflects an active, concentrated, style neutral approach. Ethical and tax considerations have important consequences for our style.

We adopt a long term approach to managing investment and believe that markets can be inefficient over shorter periods creating opportunities for active managers to add value to portfolio returns.

Our investment style is style neutral. Growth and value investing are well established disciplines with their own strengths and weaknesses. Our style neutral approach encourages a broad approach to idea generation and seeks to minimise the impact of a style bias on medium term performance.

We construct concentrated portfolios. Portfolio concentration encourages conviction in stock positions, minimises the drag on returns from legacy positions and creates competition for the capital available in the portfolio. It also allows us to increase the depth of our knowledge on holdings in the portfolio.

We are ethical investors and our ethical policy encompasses environmental, social, governance and labour considerations and is designed to reflect the values of charitable and faith-based organisations. This includes a focus on positive investment (companies which promote human welfare, dignity and respect, and for the general good) as well as avoiding investing in companies whose products, services or practices cause or perpetuate injustice and suffering, infringe human rights or cause unacceptable damage to the natural environment.

This list is based on the percentages provided in your AUM breakdown and your responses to the gateway indicators. You are only required to report on asset classes that represent 10% or more of your AUM. You may report voluntarily on any applicable modules or sections by selecting them from the list. Description

~~Positive screening
UCA Funds Management seeks to invest in companies which promote human welfare, dignity and respect, and for the general good. This includes companies whose products, services and practices enhance health and welfare, and that preserve the environment. Industry examples considered a positive effect include companies involved in:

- Clean energy
- Recycling
- Employment
- Health Care
- Community Services

Norms-based screening

LEI 06.2	Describe how the screening criteria are established, how often the criteria are reviewed and how you notify clients and/or beneficiaries when changes are made.

~~Ethical Filters

As stewards of capital, our 360° Ethical® Investing process encourages a range of ethical issues to be considered in our investment process.

Our ethical investment policy and positive screening encourages investment in companies that produce goods or services which:

- Enhance the health and welfare of individuals and communities; and
- Preserve the environment.

Similarly, our negative screening seeks to avoid investing in companies whose products, services or practices:

- Cause or perpetuate injustice and suffering;
- Infringe human rights;
- Cause unacceptable damage to the natural environment; or
- Have unacceptable occupational health and safety practices;
- We avoid investing in companies that support oppressive regimes.

Prohibited industries are currently armaments, uranium, thermal coal, unconventional oil and gas, gambling, alcohol production, tobacco manufacturing and pornography.

In practice, the majority of investments will be in companies which are considered to be neutral in terms of the positive and negative screens. Such investments will be made on the basis of investment criteria, which will assist UCA FM to exercise good stewardship, and provide a reliable source of income and capital growth. The wise use of resources is, in itself, an ethical outcome.
