

HUMAN RESOURCES AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. CONSTITUTION

- 1.1 The PRI Association Board (the Board) has established a committee of the Board, known as the Human Resources and Remuneration committee, with terms of reference as set out below.
- 1.2 The Articles of Association of PRI Association (the Articles) state that Directors may: (i) constitute committees to facilitate the workings of the Board; and (ii) may, if they choose, delegate any of their powers to those committees on the basis set out in the Articles.
- 1.3 As instructed by the Articles Directors must specify in writing the terms of reference (including such conditions as they see fit) of each committee in accordance with the Articles.
- 1.4 All committees constituted in accordance with Articles must follow procedures which are based as far as they are applicable on those provisions of the Articles which govern the taking of decisions by the Directors.
- 1.5 The terms of reference of, and any delegation of executive power by the Board to, a committee must be recorded in the Board's minutes.
- 1.6 The Directors may revoke or alter a delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.
- 1.7 No rule, policy or terms of reference will be inconsistent with anything contained in the Articles, but in the event of any inconsistency, the Articles will prevail.

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1 The committee is a committee of the Board and its purpose is to ensure that the human resources (HR) and remuneration arrangements support the strategic aims of the PRI Association and enable the recruitment, development, retention and fair treatment of staff while complying with the requirements of regulatory and governance bodies, satisfying the expectations of its members and remaining generally consistent with the expectations of the wider target employee population.
- 2.2 The committee's responsibility and authority covers the entire PRI Association, any subsidiary companies and any joint ventures that may be entered into.

3. DUTIES

The Board authorises the Human Resources and Remuneration committee to:

- 3.1 review and make recommendations to the Board on the HR plan and policies;
- 3.2 From time to time, and as the committee sees fit, conduct an overall assessment of the PRI staff, having reference to the business needs and strategic aims of the PRI Association, and provide related advice to the Board;
- 3.3 oversee and make recommendations to the Board on succession planning of the PRI senior executive staff (directors and associate directors), and related development needs and plans;

- 3.4 coordinate and make recommendations to the Board on the Executive evaluation of the PRI senior executive staff;
- 3.5 give advice to the Board for final decision-making on terms of employment of PRI senior executive staff, including, without limitation, salaries, bonuses, benefits in kind, and the duration of their contracts;
- 3.6 regularly review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy to ensure that the policies and practice applicable to all staff facilitate the recruitment and retention of people of the required calibre and with the required skill sets;
- 3.7 receive information on internal and external trends in remuneration and benefits, including where necessary commissioning any reports or surveys aimed at establishing the PRI's market position or exploring particular aspects of remuneration;
- 3.8 approve salary review process and any collective annual increment available for reviews;
- 3.9 give advice to the Board for final decision making on any major changes to the benefits policy;
- 3.10 give advice to the Board for final decision making on the annual appraisal process and remuneration of the Managing Director; and
- 3.11 give advice to the Board for final decision making on the terms and conditions relating to the remuneration of the Board Chair.
- 3.12 For the avoidance of doubt, the committee would not normally be concerned with individual salaries or terms of employment unless they fall outside the scope of agreed policies or delegated authorities.
- 3.13 The committee will also consider other topics, as referred to it from time to time by the Board.

4. COMMITTEE COMPOSITION
